Market Maze

ROXIE
MUNRO

Educators and Parents—

In this interactive book of mazes, young readers can follow the path food takes to get to the market and the table, starting with the habitats and environments in which it is grown.

Each of Roxie Munro's intricately drawn mazes features a different product, from vegetables and dairy to flowers and baked goods, and the additional fun challenge of spotting hidden objects within each maze.

To help your children improve their skills, print out and tape together the attached poster to complete the maze and head on an apple-picking adventure! Answers are provided on the last page.

How to Play
