Word search puzzles are great fun, yet they are easy to play: Just find the words that have been hidden in the grid -- up, down, forward, or diagonally. Within the puzzle, words can overlap; that is, a letter can be part of two or more words. This puzzle has a "hidden word." If you can find all the words in the grid, the remaining letters will form a word that answers the following question:

As a resident of Pennsylvania, what would Punxsutawney Phyllis be called?
